If the Traveler does not make the full payment within the deadline, he is considered to have canceled the trip in accordance with point 12 of the General Terms and Conditions. Each advance payment is treated as a payment for all passengers, not just for one specific passenger from the Agreement.

Upon conclusion of the Agreement, the Program becomes an integral part of it and cannot be changed, unless the contracting parties expressly agree otherwise or if changes occur due to force majeure. If the Agreement is canceled or amended, the cancellation provisions and amendments apply to all passengers listed in the Agreement.

The organizer sells the tourist trip at the sales price, which is expressed in a single amount. The sales price can be expressed in dinars and in foreign currency. When the prices are expressed in a foreign currency, and the calculation of payments is made in dinars, the official middle exchange rate of dinars of the NBS on the day of payment is applied. The prices are based on the Organizer's business policy and cannot be objected to by the Passenger.

Services performed abroad (which are not pre-contracted and paid for) The passenger pays on the spot to the immediate provider of the service.

The sales price from the Contract includes all those costs that form an inseparable part necessary for the realization of a tourist trip and includes a pre-prepared and published combination of at least two or more services of average quality, usual for a given destination and facilities, namely: accommodation, meals, transportation, transfers , regular services of the representative at the destination, preparation and organization of the trip, and which is expressed in a single amount that the Traveler pays (further: Standard services).

The mediator is not authorized to contract special services on behalf of the Organizer that are not provided for in the Program.

The conditions related to obtaining discounts for children as well as other benefits that are specifically provided in the Program are determined by the direct service providers and should be interpreted restrictively (e.g. for children up to two years of age, the relevant calendar date is when the child turns two year in relation to the date of the start of the trip, not the date of conclusion of the contract). In case of wrongly stated age of the Passenger, the Organizer has the right to charge the difference up to the full price of the trip.

They are not included in the price and the Organizer cannot be responsible to the Passenger for optional and subsequently performed services, performed and charged for by a foreign partner, i.e., a direct service provider, which were not provided for in the Program or Special Agreement, as well as for the Passenger's participation in sports and other free activities.

If, within the specified period, the Traveler does not notify the Organizer in writing that he is withdrawing from the Agreement, he is considered to have agreed to the new price, which may also be through the payment made.

6. PRICE CHANGE AND THE PASSENGER'S RIGHT TO CANCELLATION:

The organizer can increase the agreed price from the travel arrangement contract if this right has been agreed and if it has been agreed that the traveler has the right to reduce the price. The organizer can increase the price, that is, the passenger can decrease the price, in the event of a change: 1) in the price of passenger transportation that occurred due to a change in the price of fuel or other energy sources; 2) existing taxes or the introduction of new taxes, including residence taxes, airline taxes or taxes for embarkation or disembarkation in ports and airports; 3) exchange rate related to the tourist trip.

If the price increase is greater than 7% of the total price of the tourist trip, the organizer cannot unilaterally change the price. Regardless of the scope of the price increase, such an increase will be possible only if the organizer informs the passenger about the increase in an understandable and non-deceptive way and provides a documented explanation for such an increase and calculation, which notification is delivered to the passenger on paper, on another permanent record carrier or electronically, with confirmation of receipt, at least 20 days before the start of the tourist trip. If the contract on a tourist trip foresees the possibility of a price reduction, the organizer will provide the traveler with the right to a price reduction in proportion to the cost reduction that occurs after the conclusion of the contract, and before the start of the trip. In the event of a price reduction, the organizer has the right to deduct the costs from the compensation owed to the passenger, with proof of those costs, if the passenger requests it. If within a reasonable period of time, no longer than 48 hours, the Traveler does not notify the organizer in writing that he accepts the change in the agreed price, he is considered to have terminated the Agreement. Subsequent price reductions of the Program outside of the stated reasons cannot apply to already concluded Contracts and cannot be the basis of any complaint by the Traveler to the Organizer ("last minute" prices).

7. CATEGORIZATION AND DESCRIPTION OF SERVICES:

All services listed in the Program include standard services of average quality, common and specific to certain destinations, places and facilities. In the village if the passenger wants some services outside the Program, a Special Agreement must be concluded on this. The Organizer is not responsible for descriptions of services in catalogs - publications or on the websites of direct service providers (eg hotels, carriers, etc.), unless the Traveler has been expressly directed to them. The Organizer is only responsible for the descriptions of the services contained in its Programs, that is, on its website. Accommodation facilities and accommodation units, means of transport, etc. The services, described according to the official categorization of the domicile country at the time of publication of the Program, are different and not comparable by destination, even within the same destination. Nutrition, comfort and quality of service depend primarily on the price of the arrangement, chosen destination and categorization, determined by local-national regulations and outside the control and influence of the Organizer. The start and end date of the trip determined by the Program does not imply a full-day stay of the traveler in the accommodation facility, i.e. the destination. The time of departure or arrival of passengers and the entry or exit of passengers from the accommodation facility is determined by procedures at border crossings, road conditions, permits from competent authorities, technical and weather conditions or force majeure, which may affect the departure time of aircraft and other means of transport which the Organizer cannot influence, and therefore the Organizer is not responsible for such cases. The first and last day of the Program are intended for travel and do not include a stay in a hotel or destination

- but only indicate the calendar day of the start and end of the trip, so the Organizer is not responsible for evening, night or early morning flight, entering the room late in the evening, leaving the hotel in the early morning and similar. For air travel arrangements, the agreed travel start time is the passenger's meeting at the airport, which is at least 2 hours earlier than the first published departure time, by the airline. In the event of a postponement of the stated departure time, the Organizer bears no responsibility, but national and international regulations in the field of air traffic are applied. As a rule, the departure - arrival, take-off - landing of the plane, for charter flights, is in the late evening or early morning hours, and if, for example, provided the agreed initial or final meal in the form of the so-called of a "cold meal" in the accommodation facility, it is considered that the Agreement has been fully executed.

The services of a tourist guide, chaperone, local guide, animator or local representative do not imply their all-day and continuous presence, but only contact and necessary assistance to the Traveler, according to pre-determined periods of periodic duty, published on the notice board or in another suitable way. The instructions and instructions of the authorized representative of the Organizer (especially regarding the time of departure, transportation, accommodation, legal and other regulations) are binding on the Traveler, and non-compliance with the aforementioned instructions constitutes a breach of the Agreement, and all possible consequences and damages in such a case are borne by the Traveler in full.

If the circumstances beyond the will and ability of the organizer dictate that the flight or transportation should be moved to another airport or place, the organizer is obliged to offer the traveler another suitable transportation, until the end of the tourist trip, without additional costs for the traveler, as well as to pay the possible difference in price between the contracted and provided services /Article 103. ZOZP/.

When a third party takes the place of a person who reserved a certain tourist service, the Organizer has the right to compensation for the incurred necessary costs of the change. The passenger and the person stepping on his place are jointly and severally liable for the payment of the contracted price and the costs of replacing the passenger. 11. CHANGE AND CANCELLATION OF THE CONTRACT BY THE ORGANIZER:

Before starting the trip, the organizer can unilaterally change the contract on organizing the trip if: 1) the right of the organizer to unilaterally change the contract is stipulated in the contract;

2) if the change is negligible. If, before the agreed day of the start of the trip, the organizer determines that it is forced to change certain essential elements of the contract on organizing the trip, such as the price, destination, means of transport, characteristics or category of transport, date, type, location, category or level of comfort of accommodation, or if the organizer cannot fulfill the passenger's special requests with which he has agreed, the organizer, i.e. the intermediary, is obliged to inform the passenger without delay. The notification of changes to the terms of the contract contains a reasonable deadline in which the traveler is obliged to inform the organizer, i.e. the intermediary, whether he accepts the proposed changes or terminates the contract without paying a termination fee, as well as information about the consequences of missing the deadline and, if necessary, information about the offered replacement trip, equal to or higher quality and its price. In case the traveler accepts the proposed changes to the contract or accepts a replacement trip, the organizer is obliged to conclude a new contract on organizing the trip and provide a new travel guarantee. If a change of contract or substitute trip results in a lower quality or cause additional costs for the passenger, the organizer is obliged to provide the passenger with an appropriate price reduction. In case of termination of the contract, the organizer will refund all payments received from the passenger immediately, and no later than within 14 days from the date of termination of the contract.

The organizer can terminate the contract on organizing the trip and pay the total payment to the traveler before starting the trip to funds for a tourist trip when: 1) the number of persons registered for a tourist trip is less than the minimum number stipulated in the contract and the organizer informs the traveler about the termination within the term specified in the contract, which cannot be shorter than: (1) 20 days before the start of the tourist trip in the case of trips lasting longer than six days; (2) seven days before the start of the tourist trip in the case of trips lasting between two and six days; (3) 48 hours before the start of the tourist trip in the case of trips lasting less than two days; 2) the organizer is prevented from executing the contract due to unavoidable and extraordinary circumstances. In that case, the organizer is obliged to inform the traveler about the termination of the contract without undue delay, and before starting the tourist trip. The organizer is obliged to pay the total amount paid to the traveler, without undue delay, and no later than within 14 days of termination. The organizer is not responsible for the compensation of possible expenses incurred by the passengers due to the termination of the contract.

If the Traveler interferes with the implementation of the trip due to rude and improper behavior, regardless of the issued warning, the Organizer may request compensation for any incurred expenses. In the event of extraordinary circumstances during the trip that could not be predicted in advance, and which can be brought under force majeure (terrorist attacks, state of emergency, explosions, infections, epidemics and other diseases, natural disasters, climatic conditions, etc.), both the contracting parties have the right to terminate the Agreement, whereby the Organizer does not assume any responsibility if the Traveler refuses the offered return by the provided means of transport.

12. CANCELLATION OF THE CONTRACT BY THE PASSENGER:

12.1. Before starting the trip: The traveler has the right to cancel the trip, about which he is obliged to inform the Organizer in writing in the manner in which the Agreement was concluded. The date of written cancellation of the Agreement is the basis for the calculation of compensation due to the Organizer, expressed as a percentage of the cancellation scale in relation to the total price of the trip, unless otherwise specified by the Program, namely:

If the Traveler cancels the trip in a timely manner (90 to 45 days), the Organizer has the right to be compensated only for the incurred administrative costs.

10% if the trip is canceled from 44 to 30 days before the start of the trip,

20% if canceled 29 to 20 days before the start of the trip,

40% if canceled 19 to 15 days before the start of the trip,

80% if canceled 14 to 10 days before the start of the trip, 90% if canceled 9 to 6 days before the start of the trip, 100% if canceled 5 to 0 days before the start of the trip or during the trip.

Exceptionally from the above, the following cancellation scale will be applied:

a. on ship cruises-

5% and at least EUR 60.00 up to 91 days before the start of the trip,

15% from 90 to 45 days before the start of the trip,
30% from 44 to 29 days before the start of the trip,
50% from 28 to 15 days before the start of the trip,
80% from 14 to 7 days before the start of the trip,
95% from 6 to 3 days before the start of the trip,
100% on the day of travel, non-arrival or cancellation during the trip

b. for recreational vacations for preschoolers, outdoor classes, school and student excursions if the entire contract is canceled:

5% if the trip is canceled up to 120 days before the start of the trip,
20% if canceled from 119 to 90 days before the start of the trip,
50% if canceled from 89 to 60 days before the start of the trip,
80% if canceled from 59 to 45 days before the start of the trip,
100% if canceled from 44 to before the start or during the trip.

Changing the essential elements of the contract (agreed place, date of travel, means of transport, accommodation facility, accommodation unit), as well as failure to obtain a visa, non-payment of the agreed price, etc., is considered the passenger's withdrawal from the trip.

In the event that the traveler has completely or partially withdrawn from the contract on organizing the trip, before the start as well as during the duration of the tourist trip, due to circumstances that he could not avoid or remove and which, if they existed at the time of the conclusion of the contract, would constitute a justified reason for not concluding the contract, the organizer has the right to reimbursement of actual costs. The passenger's justified reasons for canceling the contract are: 1) sudden illness of the passenger, as well as serious illness of his blood relative in the direct line, and in the collateral line up to the second degree, spouse or in-law relative up to the second degree, adoptee and adoptive parent; 2) death of the passenger's blood relative in the direct line, and in the collateral line up to the second degree, spouse or in-law relative up to the second degree, adoptee or adoptive parent; 3) natural disasters in the country of origin or destination; 4) an officially declared state of emergency in the country of origin or destination; 5) emergency situation in the country of origin or destination. In this case, the organizer is obliged to provide an explanation of the amount of compensation at the request of the passenger.

For the mentioned cases, the Traveler is obliged to provide the Organizer with proof of the rights from the health insurance based on the temporary inability to work (certificate of the chosen doctor from the field of general medicine, i.e. about the death certificate of a stationary health institution, which expressly confirms the sudden illness and the inability to travel), i.e. a death certificate, i.e. an invitation to military training. Cases of local terrorist attacks, explosions, infections, epidemics and other diseases, natural disasters, climatic conditions, etc., for which a state of emergency has not been declared by the competent state authorities of the domicile or country cannot be considered as justified reasons for the cancellation or interruption of the Passenger's trip. travel.

Sudden illness means a sudden and unexpected diagnosis by an authorized doctor an illness, that is, an infectious disease or an organic disorder, which occurs after the conclusion of the travel contract and is not related to, nor is it a consequence of, any previous health condition, and is of such a nature that it requires treatment, a stay in a hospital (hospitalization) and prevents the start - use of the contracted travel. The Organizer, in case the Traveler provides the appropriate one replacement or the replacement is performed by the Organizer himself, he is obliged to refund the total amount paid to the Traveler, after deducting only actual and incurred expenses. In case of replacement of the Passenger, the Organizer is obliged to conclude a Contract with the new passenger.

In the event of cancellation of the trip, which is covered by the insurance policy, the Traveler realizes his right directly from the insurer.

In case of withdrawal from the Agreement, the amount paid to the Organizer for mediation in obtaining visas, as well as paid legal and other obligations, will not be returned to the Traveler.

12.2. After starting the trip: If, due to the cancellation of the trip, the Traveler does not use some of the contracted services due to his own fault, the Organizer will try to obtain from the service provider compensation for unused services. If the service provider does not return the money, the Traveler does not have the right to a refund of the corresponding part of the price, of the unused trip. If it is an insignificant service or value, the Organizer is released from this obligation. If, due to the Organizer's fault, a significant part of the services specified in the Agreement are not performed, the Organizer is obliged to implement certain preventive measures, so that the trip can continue or to offer the Traveler other appropriate services, until the end of the tourist trip without additional costs for the Traveler, all in accordance with point 14 of these General Conditions, without affecting other legal rights of the Passenger.

14. ASSISTANCE, COMPLAINTS, LAWSUITS AND SLOW RESOLUTION VA: The travel organizer is obliged to display a notice on the way and place of complaint submission at the point of sale, and to ensure the presence of a person authorized to receive complaints during working hours.

The travel organizer is obliged to keep records of complaints received, and to keep them for at least two years, from the date of submission of the Traveler's complaint.

The traveler is obliged to communicate a justified complaint on the spot to the local representative of the Organizer without delay, and in urgent cases, if he is not immediately available, to the immediate service provider (e.g. carrier, hotelier, etc.), or if these persons are not listed in the travel documents, directly to the Organizer .

For help, emergencies and other cases, as well as complaints, the Traveler can contact the Organizer via tel. number +381652066943, on weekdays from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., Central European time or via e-mail:

talastravel@gmail.com. For urgent and similar procedures, it is necessary for the Traveler to provide the Contract number, place of travel, name of the accommodation facility, passenger's name, address or telephone number, etc., through which they can be contacted.

The passenger is obliged to cooperate in good faith in the complaint procedure in order to solve the problem within a reasonable time, depending on the nature of the complaint (e.g. refrigerator failure, power or water outage, poorly cleaned apartment, etc.) and accept the offered solution that corresponds to the contracted service.

If the cause of the complaint is not removed on the spot, the Traveler and the Organizer's representative draw up a written confirmation of this in two copies, which both parties sign. The passenger keeps one copy of this certificate.

Local representatives do not have the right to recognize any requests for compensation, but only the Organizer.

The passenger cannot demand a proportional reduction in the price, termination of the Agreement and compensation for damages, if he negligently and in the prescribed manner fails to inform the authorized representative and the Organizer on the spot, without delay and in a timely manner, about the deficiencies between the provided and contracted services.

If the deficiencies are not eliminated on the spot, the Traveler is obliged to submit a substantiated and documented complaint (written complaint on the spot, bills of expenses, a request by type of unperformed services, factually specified and quantified in relation to each individual passenger, witnesses and other evidence) and demand a refund of the price difference between contracted and unperformed, i.e. partially performed services. Each Passenger who is a signatory to the Agreement, in his own name and on behalf of the person from the Agreement or a person with proper power of attorney for representation, submits a complaint individually, because the Organizer will not consider group complaints.

It is preferable for the Traveler to submit the complaint in writing to the Organizer's address in Belgrade, Svetozara Markovića Street 44/4.

The traveler can make a complaint orally at the point of sale where he concluded the Travel Contract, or another place designated for receiving complaints, electronically, or on a permanent record carrier, with the delivery of documentation showing the basis of the complaint.

The organizer is obliged to process only timely, reasoned and documented complaints, after the complaint made by the Passenger, whose cause could not be eliminated during the trip on the spot, and to issue a written confirmation to the Passenger or confirm receipt of the complaint electronically, i.e., communicate the number under by which his complaint was registered in the record of complaints received.

The organizer is obliged to provide the Traveler with a written answer within 8 days from the day of receipt of the formal complaint and to pay the difference in price within 15 days. The travel organizer can extend this deadline with the consent of the Traveler and record it in the complaint book.

The traveler is obliged to respond to the Organizer's answer no later than three days after receiving the Organizer's answer. If the passenger does not make a statement within the prescribed period, it will be considered that he does not agree with the Organizer's proposal.

If the complaint is not complete and needs to be edited, the Organizer will send the Traveler an answer, to edit it within the given deadline, under the threat of failure.

The organizer, in accordance with good business practices, will respond to the Traveler within the legal deadline even for complaints that are untimely, unfounded or disorderly.

The reduction of the price upon complaint by the Passenger can only reach the amount of the advertised and unperformed part of the service, it cannot include services already used, nor reach the amount of the entire contracted price. The amount of the fee, which is paid for a well-founded and timely complaint under the Contract, is proportional to the degree of unperformed or partially performed service. If the Traveler accepts the payment of the compensation in the name of a proportional price reduction, or any other type of compensation, it is understood that he agrees with the Organizer's proposal for a peaceful settlement of the dispute, and thus waives all further claims against the Organizer in connection with the disputed relationship, regardless of the fact did he sign a written confirmation about it j refund, with a clause on the final resolution of mutual disputes. It will be considered that the refund of the price difference to the Traveler has been made and an agreement has been reached with the Traveler in accordance with the law, these General Terms and Conditions and the YUTA General Terms and Conditions, when the Organizer has offered the Traveler a real difference in price for inadequately provided services, in accordance with the price list of the direct service provider, which was valid on the day of conclusion of the Travel Contract, and other available evidence, and that the Organizer acted in accordance with positive regulations.

Any request by the Traveler to initiate the procedure before other persons, before the expiration of the deadline for resolving complaints, will be considered premature.

15. TRAVEL PROGRAM ON PASSENGER REQUEST AND INDIVIDUAL SERVICES:

15.1. Travel program at the request of the Passenger: Individual travel (further: Program at the request) of the Traveler is a combination of two or more services, as well as a multi-day stay that only includes an accommodation service that is not in the Organizer's offer, i.e. that the Organizer has not previously announced, but made it at the Traveler's request.

The provisions of the previous clauses of these General Terms and Conditions apply analogously to the On-Demand Program, unless otherwise regulated by this clause.

The traveler has the right to withdraw from the Agreement, which he is obliged to notify the Organizer in writing. The date of written cancellation of the Agreement is the basis for calculating the compensation that belongs to the Organizer, expressed as a percentage in relation to the total price of the requested trip, if the Program does not specify otherwise, namely:

If the Traveler cancels the trip in a timely manner (90 to 60 days), the Organizer has the right to compensation only for the incurred administrative costs.

15% if the trip is canceled from 60 to 30 days before the start of the trip,

20% if canceled 29 to 20 days before the start of the trip,

40% if canceled 19 to 15 days before the start of the trip,

80% if canceled 14 to 10 days before the start of the trip,

90% if canceled 9 to 6 days before the start of the trip,

100% if canceled 5 days before the start of the trip or during the trip.

15.2. Individual services and "Reservations on request": If the Traveler makes only one reservation service, which does not include the overnight service. The Organizer acts only as an intermediary for someone else's service. For individual and "reservations on request", the Organizer may request a deposit from the Traveler for the cost of the reservation. If the reservation is accepted by the Traveler, the deposit is included in the price of the service. If the service intermediary does not confirm the reservation within the agreed period, the deposit is returned to the Traveler in full.

The service intermediary, except for his gross carelessness and negligence, is not responsible for defects, material and physical damage in individual tourist services at the request of the Traveler, for which he is only an intermediary between the Traveler and the direct service providers (e.g. individual service of accommodation, transportation, tickets for sports events, excursions, car rental, etc.). By obtaining proof of the contracted individual service, contractual relations come into force, exclusively between the Traveler and each individual service provider.

16. PROTECTION OF THE PERSONAL DATA OF THE PASSENGER: The traveler is aware that the organizer has harmonized its operations with the Law on the Protection of Personal Data and agrees that the Personal Data of the Passenger and fellow travelers from the travel confirmation-contract such as: JMBG, travel document number, phone number, email address, postal address of residence... which the Traveler voluntarily provides, represent the travel organizer's business secret and can be used in the manner and under the conditions prescribed by the Personal Data Protection Act. The traveler agrees that personal data may be used by the Organizer for the implementation of the contracted Travel Program, whereby the addresses, place, time and price of the trip and the names of fellow travelers may not be disclosed to other persons, except persons designated by special regulations.

17. OBLIGATION OF IMPLEMENTATION: The Organizer can foresee different provisions in the Program in relation to these General Conditions, due to special conditions and rules for direct service providers, as well as for trips with special contents (due to the holding of sports, congresses and similar international manifestations and special types of tourism - school , hunting and fishing, extreme sports, etc.) and which form an integral part of such Agreements.

The Traveler and the Organizer agree to the jurisdiction of the YUTA Arbitration Court, Belgrade, Kondina 14, for the resolution of mutual disputes, with the application of these General Terms and Conditions, as well as the General Terms and Conditions of YUTA Travel and the regulations of the Republic of Serbia. By contracting the jurisdiction of the YUTA Arbitration Court, the Passenger's rights to initiate a specific procedure or to use a specific legal remedy to protect their rights, in the manner provided by the regulations of the Republic of Serbia, are not denied. The traveler can initiate a procedure for the out-of-court settlement of a consumer dispute before the competent body only if he has previously stated a complaint or objection to the Organizer, who is obliged to participate in the procedure for the out-of-court settlement of consumer disputes before the body. The organizer is obliged to visibly and clearly display a notice at the point of sale that he is obliged by law to participate in the out-of-court settlement of consumer disputes. Out of court settlement of a consumer dispute, the traveler can initiate before the body from the list of the Ministry mtt.gov.rs/tekst/2306/zastita-potrosaca.php.

These General Terms and Conditions are valid from November 1, 2025
